The United States District Judge has explained to me my right under the 6th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States to secure legal representation in this matter, or to request appointment of counsel by the court if I am unable to arrange for such representation through my own resources. Having been advised of my rights,

I HEREBY: Waive (give up) this right and ask these proceedings be taken up and considered without the presence of any legal representative appearing on my behalf.
