(8) Capital Cases. Criminal cases in which one or more of the defendants is eligible for the death penalty are to be assigned to the active district judges in the rotation of criminal cases for the division in which the case arises. If there is more than one active district judge in the rotation of criminal cases for that division, the case is to be assigned to the active district judge next in rotation who is not currently assigned a capital case, or who is currently assigned the least number of capital cases. If there is no active judge in the rotation for the division, the case is to be assigned to an active district judge by the Chief Judge, taking into account the desire to balance capital cases among the active district judges. Habeas cases in which the petitioner is under sentence of death are to be assigned to the active district judges in the district in rotation by order of seniority, regardless of the division in which the case arose.

(9) Miscellaneous. In the event a judge has a conflict in a case or miscellaneous proceeding that would have been assigned him under the rotation, the Clerk shall assign that case to the next judge in the rotation without a conflict, and shall assign the disqualified judge two cases when he is next in the rotation.

Cases in the Abingdon and Big Stone Gap divisions in which Judge James P. Jones has a conflict are to be assigned to Judge Michael F. Urbanski.

Cases in the Charlottesville division in which Judge Glen E. Conrad has a conflict are to be assigned to Judge Norman K. Moon; cases in which Judge Norman K. Moon has a conflict are to be assigned to Judge Glen E. Conrad.

Cases in the Danville division in which Senior Judge Jackson L. Kiser has a conflict are to be assigned to Judge Glen E. Conrad Cases in the Lynchburg division in which Senior Judge Norman K. Moon has a conflict are to be assigned to Judge Elizabeth K. Dillon.

Cases in the Harrisonburg division in which Judge Michael F. Urbanski has a conflict are to be assigned to Judge Elizabeth K. Dillon; cases in which Judge Elizabeth K. Dillon has a conflict are to be assigned to Judge Michael F. Urbanski.

The Clerk shall assign a new case or miscellaneous proceeding that is related to a pending case or miscellaneous proceeding within the division to the district judge before whom the related case or miscellaneous proceeding is pending, and in the event of multiple related filings (five or more related cases), shall obtain the guidance of the judges within the division before making the assignment and determining its effect on the rotation within that division.

Nothing in this order shall be construed to prevent any district judge from relinquishing any case on his docket or from reassigning any case on his docket to a judge in the rotation in that division with the consent of the judge to whom the case is reassigned. When a judge reassigns a case to another judge, an order will be entered transferring that case to the second judge's docket. If the assignment is for a limited purpose, the order shall state the limits of the second judge's involvement, so that the Clerk's office and the parties are fully informed.

This standing order supersedes all prior case assignment orders and memoranda of this Court, and shall take effect on December 1, 2016.

The Clerk is directed to enter this order in the order books for each division of this Court.

ENTER this 29th day of November, 2016.

Chief United States District Judge
