AO 243 (Rev. 1/15 – VAW Additions 12/15)

Motion to Vacate, Set Aside, or Correct a Sentence By a Person in Federal Custody (Motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255)

Instructions

- 1. To use this form, you must be a person who is or will be serving a sentence under a judgment against you in a federal court. By using this form, you are asking for relief from the conviction or the sentence because the sentence was imposed in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States, the court was without jurisdiction to impose such sentence, the sentence was in excess of the maximum authorized by law, or the sentence is otherwise subject to collateral attack. 28 U.S.C. §2255(a).
- 2. You must file a § 2255 form in the United States district court that entered the judgment that you are challenging. In a § 2255 motion, you may challenge the judgment entered by only one court. If you want to challenge a judgment entered by a different judge or division (either in the same district or in a different district), you must file a separate motion in the federal court that entered that judgment.
- 3. To ensure that your claims are given full consideration, your responses on the form must be typed or neatly written in the space provided, on one side of the paper only, with one-inch margins on all sides of the text. Carbon copies are not acceptable. Never use tape on pleadings submitted to the Court. Your motion must be typed or legibly handwritten on the attached form.
- 4. Answer all the questions. You do not need to cite any law. You may submit additional pages if you need more space for your answers. You may also submit a separate memorandum explaining your claims. Be sure these separate documents comply with the format explained in Paragraph 3.
- 5. You must tell the truth and sign and date the § 2255 form under penalty of perjury. If you make a false statement of a material fact, you may be prosecuted for perjury. Please note that photocopied or carbon copy signatures are not acceptable.
- 6. You need only send the original petition to the court. If you want a file-stamped copy of the petition, you must enclose an additional copy of the petition and ask the court to file-stamp it and return it to you.
- 7. If you were sentenced in any division of the United States District Court for the Western District of Virginia, send your completed, original § 2255 form and any attachments to the Clerk's Office at the following address:

Clerk's Office, United States District Court for the Western District of Virginia 210 Franklin Road, SW, Suite 540 Roanoke VA 24011-2208

- 8. CAUTION: You must include in this motion all the grounds for relief from the conviction or sentence that you challenge, and you must state the facts that support each ground. If you fail to set forth all the grounds in this motion, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.
- 9. CAPITAL CASES: If you are under a sentence of death, you are entitled to the assistance of counsel and should request the appointment of counsel.
